county voting, procedures?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: It's the same procedure that you would follow if you were going to, if I recall correctly, construct a courthouse.

SENATOR BEUTLER: What is that procedure?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: I don't know. It's in.... I don't know, quite frankly, but...

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: So I have two questions I need to find answers to: what's the penalty for swearing an...falsely swearing an oath, and how do you build a courthouse?

SENATOR BEUTLER: (Laugh) Okay. Thank you, Senator Wickersham.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Okay. The...

SENATOR BEUTLER: I...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: ...and I have an answer to one of them already. For falsely swearing an oath, let's see,...

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: One minute.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: ...it's a Class I misdemeanor: occurs in an official proceeding; is intended to mislead a public servant. Person makes a false...well, it might also be a Class II. It's either a Class I or a Class II misdemeanor.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: There's a separate set of provisions.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Thank you, Senator. I think that's...that's all I have for now. Thank you.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Okay.
